Panko crunch topping

Peel and finely chop the garlic. Heat the olive oil in a frying pan, lightly fry the panko breadcrumbs and then add the garlic. Fry until golden brown, season with salt and pepper and leave to cool.

Pasta

Wash, dry and roughly pluck the basil. Peel the garlic. Puree the silken tofu, basil, yeast flakes, garlic, lemon juice, Byodo extra virgin olive oil, salt and pepper in a blender to a creamy, homogeneous sauce. Season again with salt, pepper or lemon juice to taste.

Cook the fusilli in boiling salted water for 10-12 minutes until al dente. Then mix with the basil and silken tofu sauce and serve with the panko crunch topping.

Our tip:

If you can't find panko breadcrumbs (available in the Asian section of the supermarket), you can also use breadcrumbs for the crunch topping.
